

Entrust End User License

If Entrust provides any Software to Customer, alone or in connection with any other type of Offering (e.g. a Hosted Service), and no separate license was provided with such Software, the Agreement for the Software is made up of this end user license ("Software Schedule"), the Entrust General Terms and Conditions available at <https://www.entrust.com/general-terms.pdf> ("General Terms"), and an Order for the Software (or for the Offering in connection with which the Software is provided). Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the General Terms.

1. Scope.

- 1.1. The Software and related Documentation is protected by copyright and other intellectual property laws and treaties. Copies of the Software and related Documentation provided to Customer (or Users) pursuant to the Agreement are licensed, not sold, and neither Customer nor any User receives any title to or ownership of any copy of the Software and/ or Documentation itself.
- 1.2. This Software Schedule, on its own, does not grant any entitlement to receive any Support or upgrades to the Software. If Customer is entitled to receive Support for the Software, for example if the Order for the Software indicates that Support is included with the Software or has been purchased separately for the Software, then such support will be provided pursuant to the then-current applicable Support Schedule available at www.entrust.com/legal-compliance/terms-conditions. The Software includes any upgrades to which the Customer is entitled, subject to additional terms (if any) that may be applicable to the enhanced features made available as part of the upgrade.
- 1.3. Interoperability. Entrust or third parties may make available plugins, agents, or other tools that enable the Software to interoperate with third party products or services (each, an "Interoperation Tool"). Customer acknowledges and agrees that such Interoperation Tools are not part of the Software. Except for Interoperation Tools expressly licensed by Entrust under this Software Schedule,

7. Term and Termination.

7.1. Term. The Software may be licensed on a perpetual or subscription basis, as specified in the Order. Unless otherwise specified on the Order, the Offering Term will commence on the date that the Order is accepted by Entrust and will continue in effect either (i) for perpetually-licensed Software, for so long as Customer continues to use the Software, or (ii) for subscription Software, for a period of one (1) year or such other period as stated in the Order, in each case, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the Agreement.

7.2. Termination. In addition to the termination rights in the General Terms:

7.2.1. Entrust may terminate a license to Software granted under this Software Schedule and refuse any additional Orders for Software if Customer commits a material breach of this Software Schedule and fails to remedy such material breach within thirty (30) days after delivery of notice of the occurrence or existence of such breach or such longer period as may be agreed to in writing by Entrust.

7.2.2. Customer may terminate a perpetual license to Software granted under this Software Schedule by destroying all copies of the Software under its control and notifying Entrust of such destruction.

8. U.S. Government End-Users. Any software and documentation provided under the Agreement are commercial items, as that term is defined in 48 CFR 2.101, consisting of commercial computer software and commercial computer software documentation, as those terms are used in 48 CFR 12.212. If software or documentation is acquired by or on behalf of the U.S. government or by a U.S. government contractor (including without limitation prime contractors and subcontractors at any tier), then in accordance with 48 CFR 227.7202-4 (for Department of Defense licenses only) and 48 CFR 12.212 (for licenses with all federal government agencies), the government's rights to such software and documentation are limited to the commercial rights specifically granted in the Agreement, as restricted by the Agreement. The rights limited by the preceding sentence include any rights to reproduce, modify, perform, display, disclose, release, or otherwise use the software or documentation. This Section (U.S. Government End-Users) does not grant Customer any rights not specifically set forth in the Agreement. Customer shall not remove or deface any restricted rights notice or other legal notice appearing in any software or documentation or on any associated packaging or other media. Customer shall require that its U.S. government users of any software or documentation agree to and acknowledge the provisions of this Section (U.S. Government End-Users) in writing.

9. Open Source. Versions of certain third-party open source software (including libraries and redistributable files) may be embedded in, delivered with or automatically downloaded as part of any Software ("Ancillary Software"). The Ancillary Software is subject to the applicable separate open source license agreement(s) pertaining to the Ancillary Software, which shall be provided with the Software or otherwise made available by Entrust. The complete list of Ancillary Software (not the Ancillary Software itself) shall be deemed Entrust Confidential Information.

10. Publicity. Customer agrees that Entrust may identify Customer as a customer of the Software, and, subject to its prior review and approval of a proposed copy, Entrust may issue a press release and/or case study regarding Customer's use of the Software.
